TRIO Third Thursday Kickoff: Click 'N Choose

TRIO Third Thursday's Kickoff Event will be held Thursday, February 21st, at 12:45 in the Carpeted Dining Room, with free pizza provided by TRIO SSS. You do not want to miss this event!

In addition to needing your feedback about current TRIO services and suggestions for future events, workshops, trips, services, etc., we also need your help to try out a new technology the college is interested in acquiring. This technology, similar to the clickers used in the "Think Fast" game show, will help the college to immediately obtain and analyze students' feedback on a variety of issues and in a variety of settings.

Because the system is set up to ensure virtual anonymity, students should feel more comfortable in giving honest, objective opinions.

Don't miss this important event! Call or stop by the TRIO SSS office to RSVP so that we will know how much pizza to order!

TRIO Tripping

Last December, several TRIO students traveled to Cheekwood to enjoy seasonal music, hands-on art activities, and a taste of the traditional foods of several diverse holiday traditions.

Students decorated Navidad angels, strung Kwanzaa beads, assembled dreidels for Hanukkah, and designed Christmas ornaments. Be sure to attend TRIO Third Thursday and offer your own suggestions for future TRIO trips and activities. Learning about culture and meeting fellow TRIO students is well worth the time.

Study Tips

Here are some hints for taking tests.

- Read over your notes every day for about thirty minutes. Studying along the way is more helpful than last minute cramming.
- Make flash cards for vocabulary words.
- Have a friend quiz you over the material.
- Make your own version of the test with the information that your instructor provides.
- Ask the instructor in what form the test will be given: multiple choice, essay, matching.
- Take your time. Don't hurry.
- Breathe. Good luck!
