Part I: Institution Policy Statement

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to outline a Student Conduct and Discipline Policy, including disciplinary hearing procedures, academic misconduct, and traffic and parking regulations applicable to the Volunteer State Community College (VSCC) community.

A. Policy

1. Volunteer State Community College (VSCC) students are considered citizens of their civic communities and of the VSCC academic community and are, therefore, expected to conduct themselves as law-abiding members of each community at all times. Admission to VSCC carries with it special privileges and imposes special responsibilities apart from those rights and duties enjoyed by non-students. In recognition of the special relationship that exists between VSCC and the academic community, which it seeks to serve, the Tennessee Board of Regents (TBR) has authorized the President of Volunteer State Community College, under its jurisdiction, to take such action as may be necessary to maintain campus conditions and preserve the integrity of VSCC and its educational environment.

2. Pursuant to this authorization and in fulfillment of its duty to provide a secure and stimulating atmosphere in which individual and academic pursuits may flourish, Volunteer State Community College adheres to the following policies, consistent with the regulations developed by the TBR which are intended to govern student conduct and which may be expanded or supplemented by VSCC subject to TBR approval. In addition, students are subject to all national, state and local laws and ordinances. If a student’s violation of such laws or ordinances also adversely affects VSCC’s pursuit of its educational objectives, VSCC may enforce its own regulations regardless of any proceedings instituted by other civil or criminal authorities. Conversely, violation of any section of these Regulations may subject a student to disciplinary measures by Volunteer State Community College whether or not such conduct is simultaneously violative of state, local or national laws.

3. The regulations, and related material incorporated herein by reference, are applicable to student organizations as well as individual students. Student organizations are subject to discipline for the conduct and actions of individual members of the organization while acting in their capacity as members of, or while attending or participating in any activity of, the student organization.

4. Subject to the exceptions provided pursuant to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), 20 U.S.C. 1232g and/or the Tennessee Open Records Act, T.C.A. § 10-7-504(a)(4), a student’s disciplinary files are considered “educational records” and are confidential within the meaning of those Acts. [NOTE: MOVED FROM PART 2 TO COINCIDE WITH SYSTEMWIDE RULE]

B. Definitions

1. For the purpose of these regulations, a “student” shall mean any person who is admitted and/or registered for study at VSCC for any academic period. This shall include any period of time following admission and/or registration, but preceding the start of classes for any academic period. It will also include any period which follows the end of an academic period through the last day for registration for the succeeding academic period, and during any period while the student is under suspension from VSCC. Finally, “student” shall also include any person subject to a period of suspension of removal from campus as a sanction which results from a finding of a violation of the regulations governing student conduct. Students are responsible for compliance with the Rules of Student Conduct contained in this policy and with similar VSCC policies at all times.

This policy is promulgated pursuant to, and in compliance with, TBR Rule 0240-02-03-.01, Institution Policy Statement. To the extent that a conflict exists between this policy and TBR rule, policy and/or applicable law(s), the TBR rule, policy and/or law will control. History – Adopted by TBR: 12/8/11. Effective: 1/29/12.

Extended or permanent exclusion from the classroom, beyond the session in which the conduct occurred, or further disciplinary action can be effected only through appropriate procedures of the institution.
B. Plagiarism, cheating, and other forms of academic dishonesty are prohibited. Students guilty of academic misconduct, either directly or indirectly, through participation or assistance, are immediately responsible to the instructor of the class. The instructor may make a decision regarding the appropriate action including assigning a grade of “F” for the exercise, examination, project or the course. In addition, other possible disciplinary sanctions may be imposed through the regular institutional disciplinary procedures. Other disciplinary sanctions will be imposed only through the appropriate institutional student disciplinary processes found in section VI, subsections A and B of this policy, which will include faculty reporting instances of academic dishonesty/misconduct to the Vice President for Student Services.

C. Students may contest a grade assignment for the exercise, examination, project or the course associated with a finding of academic misconduct, as distinct from a student disciplinary sanction, through the applicable institutional academic misconduct procedures set forth in Sections VI, Disciplinary Procedures, below. The student shall be informed of his/her hearing rights, in writing, at the time the grade decision is made. Courses may not be dropped pending the final resolution of an allegation of academic misconduct.

D. Disruptive behavior in the classroom may be defined as, but not limited to, behavior that obstructs or disrupts the learning environment (e.g., offensive language, harassment of students and professors, repeated outbursts from a student which disrupts the flow of instruction or prevents concentration on the subject taught, failure to cooperate in maintaining classroom decorum, etc.), text messaging, and the continued use of any electronic or other noise or light emitting device which disturbs others (e.g., disturbing noises from beepers, cell phones, palm pilots, lap-top computers, games, etc.). In instances where it appears a student may be a physical threat to self and/or the campus community the Behavioral Intervention Team will be consulted to conduct a threat assessment to ensure the safety of the individual and the campus community.

E. Class attendance and punctuality requirements are established by individual faculty members in the printed syllabus for each course. Along with these requirements individual faculty members will outline in the course syllabus the consequences associated with a student(s) not meeting the class attendance and punctuality requirements. Students are expected to attend classes regularly and are responsible for absences or lateness directly to the faculty member for each course in which they are enrolled.

This policy is promulgated pursuant to, and in compliance with, TBR Rule 0240-02-03-.03 Academic and Classroom Misconduct. To the extent that a conflict exists between this policy and TBR rule, policy and/or applicable law(s), the TBR rule, policy and/or law will control. History – Adopted by TBR: 12/8/11. Effective: 1/29/12.

B. Sanctions that may be imposed include, but are not limited to:
1. Restitution. Restitution may be required in situations which involve destruction, damage, or loss of property, or unreimbursed medical expenses resulting from physical injury. Any such payment in restitution shall be limited to actual cost of repair, replacement or financial loss;

2. Warning. The Vice President for Student Services or designee may notify the student or student organization that continuation or repetition of specified conduct may be cause for other disciplinary action;

3. Reprimand. A written or verbal reprimand or censure may be given to any student or student organization whose conduct violates any part of these regulations and provides notice that any further violation(s) may result in more serious penalties;

4. Service to VSCC or Community. A student, or student organization, may be required to donate a specified number of service hours to VSCC performing reasonable tasks for an appropriate VSCC office, official(s), or the local community. The service required shall be commensurate to the offense (e.g., service for maintenance staff for defacing VSCC property);

5. Specified Educational/Counseling Program. A student or student organization may be required to participate in specified educational or counseling program(s) relevant to the offense, or to prepare a project or report concerning a relevant topic;

6. Apology. A student or student organization may be required to apologize to an affected party, either verbally or in writing, for the behavior related to a disciplinary offense;

The sanction of fines may be imposed in addition to other forms of disciplinary sanctions. Failure to pay fines may result in further disciplinary action;

8. Restriction. A restriction upon a student’s or student organization’s privileges for a period of time may be imposed. This restriction may include, for example, denial of the ability to represent VSCC at any event, ability to participate in VSCC or TBR sponsored travel, use of facilities, parking privileges, participation in extracurricular activities or restriction of organizational privileges;

11. Expulsion. Expulsion entails a permanent separation from VSCC. The imposition of this sanction is a permanent bar to the student’s admission, or a student organization’s recognition to VSCC. A student or organization that has been expelled may not enter VSCC property or facilities without obtaining prior approval from the Vice President for Student Services or designee with knowledge of the expulsion directive;

12. Revocation of Admission, Degree, or Credential;

13. Any alternate sanction deemed necessary and appropriate to address the misconduct at issue.

14. Interim Involuntary Withdrawal or Suspension. As a general rule, the status of a student or student organization accused of violation of these regulations or institutional policies should not be altered until a final determination has been made in regard to the charges. However, interim involuntary withdrawal or suspension, pending the completion of disciplinary procedures, may be imposed upon a finding by the appropriate institutional official that the conduct or attempted conduct of the student poses a direct threat to the safety of any other member of the institution, its guests, property, or the student’s behavior is materially and substantially disruptive of the institution’s learning environment, or other campus activities. In any case of interim involuntary withdrawal or suspension, the student, or student organization, shall be given an opportunity at the time of the decision, or as soon thereafter as reasonably possible, to contest the suspension.

This policy is promulgated pursuant to, and in compliance with, TBR Rule 0240-02-03-.04 Disciplinary Sanctions. To the extent that a conflict exists between this policy and TBR rule, policy and/or applicable law(s), the TBR rule, policy and/or law will control. History – Adopted by TBR: 12/8/11. Effective: 1/29/12.
