President
Volunteer State Community College

COMMUNITY. Vol State is Community. With four locations, we serve an 11-county area within Middle Tennessee which includes Sumner, Wilson, Overton, Putnam, Smith, Jackson, Robertson, Macon, Trousdale, Clay, and Pickett. While each location provides general education, some offer specific direct to workforce and transfer pathway curriculums.

Each campus location has an advisory board comprised of leaders within the service area to ensure this group provides vital feedback regarding needed degrees and direct workforce programs based on community needs.

If you haven't visited any or all of our campus locations, I invite you to sign up for a campus tour. You will surely find a connection in the way of smiling faces, hard-working students, and dedicated faculty and staff.

Established in 1971, Volunteer State Community College continues to be the place where members of our community can discover what excites them, what helps them to belong, and in turn, what puts them on a path toward a meaningful life. Come see us and learn more!

Orinthia Montague

KAREN MITCHELL
Vice President for Resource Development
Executive Director of the Foundation

Greetings Alumni, Donors, and Friends!

Volunteer State Community College has experienced a lot of changes in the last few years, just like a lot of us have! Some of these changes are welcome opportunities for us to look at a new way of accomplishing our goals. This year we are moving to a digital format with our alumni and donor magazine, the Vol State Vision.

We will have a few hard copies available. If you would like to have one, let the Foundation office know and we would be happy to mail one to you. We are excited about this new way of communicating since we will hopefully be able to reach more people.

In this magazine, we are hoping to give you a glimpse into the vastness of Volunteer State Community College's offerings and campuses. We wish we could take you all on a tour but this might be the next best thing!

Thank you for your support as alumni and donors. Through your support, you have allowed us to make an impact on many students.

Karen Mitchell

GETTING TO KNOW OUR CAMPUSES

Gallatin

Written by: Haydn Calhoun, VSCC student

The Gallatin Vol State campus was founded in 1971 and is considered the “main” campus out of the four operated by the college. Vol State offers two-year degrees, certificates and paths to university transfer. Divisions include Business and Technology, Health Sciences, Math and Science, Social Science and Education, Nursing and Humanities. The campus has eighteen buildings that span over the 110-acre property in Gallatin.

Many programs are included in the Tennessee Transfer Pathway program to ensure ease of credit transfer to any public, four-year institution in Tennessee.

Vol State serves as a vibrant part of this community. Our campus location also hosts our athletic teams, which include baseball, softball and men’s and women’s basketball. The Vol State sports teams are nicknamed the Pioneers and the Lady Pioneers.

JULIA BISHOP

Budd and Julia Bishop initially made a generous gift to the Volunteer State Community College Livingston Campus in 2005. They continued to give for scholarships and events for that campus, even starting their own Budd and Julia Bishop scholarship. They both had a passion for Livingston and education prior to Budd's passing in 2016.

The Bishops were instrumental in raising funds for the Vol State Livingston new building campaign and contributed financially to the campaign along with funding their scholarship. The entrance to the Livingston Campus is named for Budd and Julia Bishop.

Budd and Julia felt so strongly about Volunteer State Community College and the Livingston campus, that they wanted others to invest in scholarships for students to attend that campus. They started a fundraising event called Vol E Ball, with the "E" standing for "education." The first event was held in the spring of 2011 and facilitated each year through 2015. This popular event generated over $207,000 in revenue during a five-year period and touched more than 200 students in Overton County. Funds were also used to purchase books for Dual Enrollment students as part of the Vol State First initiative.

Since Julia's retirement, she has served the community in various capacities including the Volunteer State Community College President's Advisory Board, Member of the Downtown Livingston Revitalization Committee, and the Envision Committee.
