

The Vol State Cookeville Rotaract Club has a personal commitment to empower young adults and young professionals to take action through community and international service, develop leadership skills through professional development, and gain a global perspective that fosters world peace and cultural understanding as partners in service.

Activities

Welcome Days

Fall Festival

Spring Fling

Community Service opportunities

For more information contact the club advisor:

Lori Richards

Lori.Richards@volstate.edu