

III:08:04 INFECTIOUS DISEASES

RATIONALE

Reduce risk of exposure to infectious diseases for employees and students

POLICY

Students/employees who are infected with or suspected of having the following diseases: measles, rubella, mumps, chickenpox, pediculosis, scabies, TB and other CDC identified diseases will be prohibited from being physically present on campus until released by a physician or the Public Health Department.

VSCC Source: Former III:06:04, April 7, 1999, President; January 15, 2009, President's Cabinet