

Ophthalmic Technician Licensure Disclosure

Volunteer State Community College’s Ophthalmic Technician Program prepares students to become ophthalmic technicians at the technician level. Upon successful completion of the program, graduates are eligible to take the Certified Ophthalmic Technician (COT) exam. Licensure is not required in any state.

The State Licensing column will indicate:

- Meets- the Vol State program curriculum meets requirements in these states and US Territories
- Does Not Meet- the Vol State program curriculum does not meet the requirements in these states and US Territories
- None – there are no known requirements for licensing in these states and US Territories
- Undetermined - the Vol State program curriculum has yet been determined if the curriculum meets the requirements in these states and US Territories.

If you have additional questions, please contact the director of the Ophthalmic Technician Program, listed on Volunteer State’s NC-SARA webpage.
